Citizenship: (15 points) Please read the excerpt below "The Code for Living," from the book, Winning More Than the Game, authorship attributed to "Athletes for a Better World."
The Code – Life Principles Learned Through Sports Because I am a role model and have the opportunity and responsibility to make a difference in the lives of others, I commit to this Code. I will take responsibility and appropriate actions when I fail to live up to it. 1) As an Individual:
 I will develop my skills to the best of my ability and give my best effort in practice and competition. I will compete within the spirit and letter of the rules of my sport. I will respect the dignity of every human being, and will not be abusive or dehumanizing of anyone either as an athlete or as a far 2) As a Member of a Team:
 I will place team goals ahead of personal goals. I will be a positive influence on the relationships on the team. I will follow the team rules established bythe coach.
 3) As a Member of Society: I will display caring and honorable behavior off the field and be a positive influence in my community and world. I will give of my time, skills, and money as I am able for the betterment of my community and world.
Briefly detail a unique personal reflection that focuses on one of the three parts of the above code. Your response may involve yourself, another individual(s), or an experience during your high school career.
